C. T. A. U. CONVENTION.

Felegrams of Congratutations Read-Keely League Graduates-The Bishop of Du

New York, Aug. 9 .- The third day's proceedings of the twenty-fifth annual onvention of the Catholic Total Abstinence union began this morning with a business session in Columbus hail at 9 o'clock. The Rev. Father Cleary presided.

The Rev. Father Doyle opened the proceedings with prayer. A number of letters and telegrams were read from sympathizers with total abstinence in various parts of the country. One of the telegrams was as follows:

Rev. A. P. Doyle, Secretary C. T. A. U.: Five hundred Keely graduates, members of the Keely League in convention, send congratulations on your twentyfifth annual gathering. We wish you God speed in the great temperance ng letter: "I earnestly wish I could be with you on the occasion of the Silver Jubilee convention. It would be pleasant for me to meet friends with whom I stood side by side in the 'great cause' for the last twenty-five years.

C. F. O'DELL, President. C. H. DEBOLT, Secretary." The bishop of Duluth sent the follow

'Many engagements prevent me from assisting in person, but I mean to offer up the great sacrifice, asking God to bless the work and give it increase. Never had we greater need for renewed effort in behalf of total abstinence than now; never greater opportunities for men of faith and energy in the noble cause than at the close of our century. "May the representatives from every state in the Union go Lome filled with the desire of increasing the ranks of the union, and thereby doing a good work JAMES McGOLDBRICK, Bishop of Du-

The committee on resolutions read its report. . Before the report was acted upon, however, a minority of the committee presented a minority report. It was read by Father Zucher. only substantial difference between he two reports was that the latter con-demned the Catholic press for publishing liquor advertisements, and deplored the brewing and sale of beer by the Monastry of St. Vincent.

To Sail For Europe To-Day. Demetrius L. Kallias Bey and his wife, who was Mrs. P. T. Barnum, will sail for Europe on La Touraine to-morrow. The couple have not decided yet where they will make their permanent home For a year they will travel in Europe and Asla. They will visit the estate and olive factories belonging to Mr. Kallias Bey on the island of Mitylene, at the entrance of the Dardanelles. As oon as they reach Turkish territory they will have an audience with the sultan, who has shown many favors o Kallias Bey. They have not decided whether they will reside in Constanti-nople, Paris, or London. The bride is English by birth and it is probable that the couple will be in London for the gay seasons there. COURT RECORD.

Extended the Time.

New York, Aug. 9.-The United States fordage bondholders' reorganization ommittee have extended the time for the deposit of bonds with the Farmers' Loan & Trust Co., and the Boston Safe Deposit & Trust Co., Boston, under their agreement of July 17, 1895, until Aug ust 16, 1895. The committee claimed to represent in the neighborhood of $2, 500,000 bonds of the outstanding $6,500, 000 bonds. The statement that the committee have decided to release bonds deposited with them is entirely un

DEATHS DURING JULY.

Cholera Morbus One of the Principal Causes

General Registrar J. J. Carr of the department of vital statistics has com pleted his report for the month of July, which shows that there were 212 deaths during the month. This was an increase over the number of deaths in the same month last year, 195 being reorded in July. Last year the principal cause of death during the month were cholera morbus and cholera infanum, the number of deaths resulting rom these causes having increased from last year. Sixty-infants and thireen adults died from the above causes The number of deaths among children under five years of age last month was 104, about the same number as

THE EDGEWOOD'S SCHEDULE

The management of the Edgewoods New Haven's leading ball team, wish o make the following announcement as to their plans for the remainder of the season:

Two or more games a week will be played on their field in Westville; only tor's prescripfirst class attractions and those who are contesting for state championship honors will be booked. Strong exhibition attractions will be offered from time to time; the negotiations are now fit. Theserofubeing carried on with several National la not improvand Eastern league teams, and some of ing I resorted to these will be seen here during this Hood's Sarsapapresent month. Just as many of these rilla upon the teams will be brought here as the baseball loving public of New Haven will elect by their patronage. The Edgewood team is, with a few exceptions, an amateur team; but two years of playing against all comers have brought the team up to the present standing, and it is certain that they will give a good account of themselves every game. Yesterday's twelve inning game, which was finally lost by the three-two score to South Norwalk bears this statement out we

This afternoon at 4 o'clock sharp, the first of these games will be played against the almost perfect fielding and hard hitting Meriden team, which contains some of New Haven's pet players, such as the Lauder brothers, who played such a star game for South Norwalk Thursday; Theisen, one of the leading sluggers of New Haven's last Eastern league team; Davis, Wesleyan's star, etc. Edgewood will either have Dunn of Brooklyn or Sedgwick, their egular man, in the box, with their ld stand by Brennan catching.

The game will be a red hot one, and fine crowd should be on hand. Owing to the expense attached to bringing such teams here they are compelled to charge a quarter admission; but believe that the public are perfectly willing to pay a quarter for quarter ball.

THE ABANDONED BOY.

His Identity at Last Determined—He Used to Live in Norwich, This State-The Stray Walf in Court Yesterday in New York. New York, Aug. 9.-James Milton togers, the five-years-old boy who was abandoned on Monday night in the Continental hotel, was brought to the Jefferson Market police court again this morning.

He wore his little blue and white allor suit, with its long flowing tie, and with his little sailor cap and oguish looking face tanned to a deep rown, attracted the attention of all

The proceedings were merely informl, and the boy was soon taken back to he rooms of the Gerry society. Severil persons tried to get a talk with the ittle fellow, but they were promptly shut off by Agent Stocking.

The really important development of the day came a little later. Stocking went up to the bench and, eaning over, whispered to Magistrate Deuel that he wanted a warrant for he arrest of a person whom he called he boy's father. He told the magistrate that the society had succeeded in peating the father, and that he would e under arrest either to-morrow or the next day. The magistrate issued the warrant without hesitation.

The real person for whose arrest was issued could not be learned, but it is generally believed that he is the man who took the boy to the hotel. A despatch received from Vermont this morning does much to clear up the mystery surrounding the case. It is lated from Windsor and says that Mrs. Caroline Shepard of Hartland, a small outlying town, admits that she had taken the boy when he was only eighten months old and had since cared for im. She was then living in Norwich. Conn., and was married to a man of the name of Rogers. "When I came up here," Mrs. Shepard continued, according to the despatch, "I brought the boy along with me. When, however, I married Mr. Shepard three weeks ago I decided it would be better to place the boy in some institution. My son, Charles Rogers, and daughter, Fannie, offered to take him back to Norwich with hem. Charles, so I am informed, or the day following their arrival in Nor wich, took the boy to New York, where

e met my son, George Rogers. "They went to find a home for the boy, and I supposed they had been successful until I heard he was abandoned
